The Odebolt Development Corporation is proud to announce the return of national recording artists The Nadas to Odebolt Creek Days in Odebolt, Iowa. They will perform on Saturday, June 21st from 9 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. outside the Odebolt Community Center.

The Nadas, a folk rock band based out of Des Moines, just released their sixth studio album, "The Ghosts Inside These Halls," and have been touring the country, recently returning from a tour of the Southwest, including Colorado, Utah, Texas, Arizona, and California. They are also a crowd favorite at the Iowa State Fair each year.

In 2006, they opened for Bon Jovi to kick off the "Have a Nice Day" tour in Des Moines. In March of this year, their original song, "Play Like A Girl" was featured in the IPTV documentary "More Than a Game: Six-on-Six Basketball in Iowa." Also, one of their songs is played at the end of each Speed TV program "Pinks," and they have a track regularly featured on the HGTV show "Be Original."

Band members include Mike Butterworth and Jason Walsmith on guitar and vocals, Jon Locker on bass guitar, Ross Vanderwerf on guitar, and Ian Shepherd on drums.

Tickets for this outdoor concert are $8 in advance or $10 at the door. Advance tickets will soon be available at several area locations.
